IQAC convener Dr. Sudesh Bhowat introduced the subject in the light of college previous results. He expressed his concern for college results which were below the university averages. Therefore IQAC wanted to work on the college results especially of final years. Speaking on the agenda Dr. Vivek Chaudhary expressed his confidence on the increase of results in the upcoming examination on the basis of introduction of practical subjects. Also due to semester pattern in first year relatively attendance has increased relatively.

Dr. Anandha Bhande expressed his happiness over IQAC's initiative of targeting college overall results. He assured about the test series and students interaction will be conducted in the respective classes. He also suggested to conduct a students parent get together before 15th February.

Dr. Anandha suggested a change of method for viva-voce. According to him students should be asked to give a oral presentation for three minutes. He also suggested teachers to conduct at least two IIT based classes. Dr. Vivek Chaudhary proposed some prizes for the students on incentives. According to him such orientation will help in increasing college results in future. Dr. Bhowate appealed the B. Com Final teachers to give special attention to students, provide them study material, conduct test series and develop a rapport with students. The meeting closed with the optimistic note of organising a get together before 15th. The list of phone number of B. Com. Final students was provided to teachers. IQAC member Dr. Virek Chavhan proposed the vote of Thanks.
